

Quiz Details

Quiz Instructions:

You have until 9:45 to complete this open book quiz.

☒ Show Question Details

Question	1 pts
To show stairways, include an arrow to indicate up or down from the previous floor level. ☐ True ☐ False

Question	1 pts
No materials should be designation on the floor plan. ☐ True ☐ False

Question	1 pts
Although most dimension lines should be outside the floor plan, it is difficult to accurately dimension interior projects without having some dimension lines within the floor plan. ☐ True ☐ False

Question1 pts

You should name or number all rooms, spaces, and corridors on a floor plan.

☐ True

☐ False

Question1 pts

The extension lines used for dimensioning should touch the walls.

☐ True

☐ False

Question1 pts

Where are the numbers placed when an area is too small for the dimension to go in the usual place?

a. in the note section

b. outside

c. below

d. outside (or sometimes below)

☐ d

☐

☐

Question*1 pts

What does the amount of material information provided on a floor plan depends on?

- a. the type of material being specified
- b. the size and complexity of construction
- c. the authority having jurisdiction (AHJ)
- d. how far it is above the finished floor (AFF)

☐ bQuestion*1 pts

Elevations rather than floor plans do indicate where building sections are cut.

☐ True☐ FalseQuestion*1 pts

The elevation and section symbols reference other sheets, where the elevations and section drawings are shown.

☐ True

☐ False

Question

1 pts

There are different ways to distinguish the difference between a section and elevation symbol.

☐ True

☐ False

Question

1 pts

Dimensions on a floor plan generally do not locate the framework of the building.

☐ True

☐ False

Question

1 pts

The centerline technique should not be used to locate exterior windows and doors.

☐ True

☐ False